PROFILE

DR. LINN KARSTADT

Dr. Linn Kristina Karstadt is Director Business Development, @Novastone Partners AG.

Dr. Linn Kristina Karstadt brings extensive experience in investor engagement, strategic growth, and capital markets, with a background spanning private equity, alternative assets, and ESG integration. Before joining Novastone, she held senior roles at Davigo Invest and ESG Portfolio Management, focusing on fund strategy, governance, and portfolio structuring for long-term value creation.

Earlier in her career, she spent over 15 years in capital markets and institutional trading at Jefferies, Citigroup, Bank of New York, and KCG Holdings, where she built and led international sales & trading teams and advised institutional clients across Europe. Linn holds a doctorate on Swiss asset management and an MBA specializing in finance, marketing, and media management.

Her expertise in European markets, succession-driven investment, and sustainable business leadership positions her as a knowledgeable speaker on unlocking the potential of Europe's succession-challenged SMEs through purposeful investment strategies.
